The Unauthorized Story Of Batman, narrated by Mark Hamill.After centuries of growth, relying on hydro to generate a huge amount of power, the Upper Peninsula has reached a stunning new point of renewable energy. There are now a number of renewable energy projects operating in the north, using wind, solar and dams to generate power in the famous Houghton-Hancock area. And in the far north, on the shores of Lake Superior, there's a new source, running on waves and a kelp forest. "The best place is here on the Great Lakes," said Nate Edgerton, founder and CEO of Lake Superior Energy. For five days a week, the company pumps water from the lake into the turbines of a new project, the Edgerton Hydro project. A few hours later, the electricity is running into the Houghton County Electric Co-op. Dram Occ13bf012
